The Meaning of Neptune in Thai Astrology.

Neptune in Thai astrology is the owner of Pisces zodiac house that is the Vinas house of world lot. World lot is lay in Aries zodiac Lukkana so Neptune is the owner is Vinas house. Cause be the owner of Vinas house so the main meaning of Neptune are mystery, Nippan, imprison, hidden enemy and unexpected event.

The place of Neptune are prison, hospital, dharma practice place, mystery place. Neptune has the specific quality such as unstable, hard to understand and giving habit.

Because it is the owner of Vinas house.

But if we use only the meaning of Vinas to describe this planet, it's not absolute correction.

Because each planet must have its own main meaning, the main meaning of Neptune are odd, not do normal and not do in law.

The word "odd" means that people who is in the influent of this planet will do odd things, not like normal people

Such as a man does not wear shirt or a woman does not wear underwear and bra when she sleeps.

Love in this time will be happened although two people never see real body of each other but they think they are lovers by their imagine.

They will dream about perfect love, if they are men, they will dream about the women inspect like princes in fairy tale that are perfect beautiful.

If they are women, they will want to meet the prince in fairy tale but this will be happened when they are teenage, when the time pass he and she can think better and come in the real world but not everyone will be like this.

The word "odd" means "People who is influenced by Neptune always have the way of life that is odd.

This is one example about working life, because people who are influenced by Neptune always work in the kind of work that are not like the way they learned from their schools or universities.

But Neptune, if it love them, they will grow in their works branches well although they have not the basic knowledge of the works

And have the big progress in their works. The more their life are down, the more chance to be great will come to them when the time that Neptune send the gift to them.
